

ALEXANDRA LEE, LL.B

SENIOR CORPORATE COUNSEL, AMUNDI CANADA

Alexandra Lee is Senior Corporate Counsel at Amundi Canada Inc. Based in Montreal, she is responsible for legal matters, regulatory compliance and corporate secretariat. She is also Amundi Canada's Privacy Officer.

Before joining Amundi Canada, Alexandra was Senior Regulatory Analyst at the Autorité des marchés financiers (Québec). In that role, she developed, negotiated, drafted and participated in implementing regulations relating to the financial industry, including regulations on the exempt market, registration, designated ratings organizations and merger and acquisitions.

Prior to that, Alexandra was in-house legal counsel at two Canadian listed companies, where she held various positions such as Corporate Secretary and Director, Compliance. She oversaw compliance with public company regulations and financial transactions as well as was responsible for Board of directors and committee meetings. Alexandra started her career as a lawyer in the law firms Heenan Blaikie and Lavery, specializing in securities law, where she advised clients on public and private financings, registration with securities regulators and on governance issues.

Alexandra holds a Bachelor of Laws and a Bachelor of Sciences (Economics and Political Science) from the Université de Montréal and is a member of the Québec Bar.